

NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS

G.D.P.R.

The new data protection laws come into force on the 25th May 2018 and I am informing you how we will be collecting, storing and using any information we gather from you as members of the Association.

The data controller of this information is the Head Secretary of the Association and all information is stored in the Head Office.

The only information held by the Association is in relationship to all memberships, name, address, telephone number and email address. In many cases not all this information has been supplied. We always ensure appropriate controls are in place to protect your personal information and that any sensitive business information you provide is treated as confidential and held securely.

We will never sell your personal details to third parties or release your information for their mailing or marketing purposes.

In future all membership application forms, registration forms and Association sale entry forms will contain information on Privacy Notices.

If you are not satisfied on the information held by the Association please inform me in the usual way.

John Stephenson
(Secretary)
